Source: Data provided by the institutions. Tuition fees are unadjusted and unweighted. Where there is a range of different fees in a faculty, the lowest tuition is reported. All fees are rounded to the nearest dollar.

n/a: not applicable

1 Full-time Graduate Student: enrolled in a program of study and makes substantial demands upon the resources of an institution such as enrolling in courses, engaging in research or writing a thesis under continuing supervision; excludes professional and applied programs (e.g., MBA, MEd, MSW).

2 Nova Scotia offers students who are residents of the province a credit rebate as per the Nova Scotia University Student Bursary Program. The following link provides more details on the program: <https://novascotia.ca/university-student-bursary/> These rebates are not deducted from the tuition fees as presented.

3 Prince Edward Island offers eligible resident students the Island Advantage Bursary for low- and middle-income students which can be accessed on top of the other bursaries. These bursary awards are not deducted from the tuition fees as presented.

4 The fees presented for Canadian students are for residents of Nova Scotia. Out-of-province Canadian students pay higher fees.
